

Rajesh K Gupta

Partner, Finance

Rajesh is a corporate finance specialist and financial innovator with 25 years of experience in industry. An entrepreneur at heart, he has added to X36 Falcon's diverse skill set by bringing new ideas to our financial design practice.

Rajesh's specialization is financial innovation. As part of his corporate experience, he has helped design innovative business and financial structures customised to client needs. He has worked with various multinational companies and institutional investors as well as banks and private equity organizations. In the M & A space he has been involved in various transactions, providing optimized and innovative solutions / structures that strengthen business value and maximize return on capital.

Rajesh has worked with several financial institutions such as India Infradebt, Leighton International, GMR and Reliance Industries and has helped build Asset portfolios worth several billion dollars. He is currently involved with Verified AG, Zurich and provides leadership on investment strategies and solutions into India.

He is the coordinator of X36 Falcons global team of Financial designers whose raison d'être is to help clients achieve their objectives with dexterous financial design.

He is based in Mumbai.