Partner, Creative Design

Amrita is an accomplished landscape artist. She has made a name for herself in the hospitality and interior designers' network, which has been buying her work .

With a masters in Commerce and a degree in Company Secretary ship, Amrita has taught business management and law to students at the under-graduate level, at colleges in Ahmedabad and Mumbai.

A rare combination of skills in business management plus art and design, she is now a part of the design team that steers the Falcon Design network.

She mentors start-up teams from business schools and business incubators and with interns, who come to work with X36 Falcon.
